ELEXIR GODINEAU
THE WORLD'S GREATEST TONIC.
Sensational Review by the Press in France

LE TEMPS.

The ELIXIR GODINEAU is now, instantly talked off by the press, it is the constant subject of their articles and the talk of town and country: it is a first class strengthening and restoring tonic of miraculous power.

L'AUTORITE.

The marvellous properties of the ELIXIR GODINEAU having been duly proved by various experiments, this powerful specific is now universally recommended as the best remedy against anæmia, tuberculosis and all cases of exhaustion of the organic system in general.

LE FIGARO.

To make gold, and find out the secret of ever lasting youth; such were the two problems which alchemists had tried to solve. The progress of science has shown the uselessness of the first, but it facilitated on the other hand, the working out of the second.
Following out the eminent professor's theories a Paris Chemist of high standing with the assistance of eminent practitioners has prepared the Elixir bearing his name the ELIXIR GODINEAU the effects of which are surprising.

LE MOT D'ORDRE.

Several truly marvellous cures effected by the ELIXIR GODINEAU and which have been echoed far and wide, have given this specific universal popularity. Hence arth anæmia, rachitis, paralysis, senile degeneration will cease to exist. The ELIXIR GODINEAU rapidly, suppresses all these affections produced by partial or general exhaustion of the organic system.

L'EVENMENT.

The fairy tale of the fountain of youth is now a true and real fact; old age only scatters a few wrinkles on the face, a few snowy flakes in the hair, but it can no longer chill the hearts of men to which the high-mettled spiritness of a youth of twenty years of age, is restored by the ELIXIR GODINEAU, one of the valuable conquests of modern science.

L'ECHO DE PARIS

The great success of the ELIXIR GODINEAU increases from day to-day, and is fully justified. This powerful specific restores health and vigour every day to numberless invalids whose cure was despaired of. All weakened or debilated organic systems are speedily strengthened after treatment with the ELIXIR GODINEAU the effect of which is as sure as it is rapid. Sole Agents for India, Burma and Ceylon.

GUARANTEED CURE
LEUCODERMA & LEPROSY
Leucoderma or White Skin does not easily change colour and the so-called unscientific pills and oils only aggravate. But Behar Chemical Works proudly declare that to-day they are able to place before the public Scientific remedies after laborious provings and tremendous expenses—remedies that are non-irritant, non—mercurial, i, e, totally harmless drugs producing no reaction. These remove rapidly the white patches by supplying natural pigments and expelling all impurities from the blood. Whatever the nature of the disease, hereditary, venereal poison or any other known and unknown source of infection, chronic or acute cases all skin eruptions due to deficiency of colouring matter or mercurial poisoning scurfs etc.—all cases are cured by our specifics both internal and external uses at Rs. 10 per set, Postage 8 as. Writes Mr. B. Sinha from Port Blair:—The medicines for the white patches were used on my son and the patient got too much benefit from its effects and ultimately cured—a wonderful thing for the Leucoderma in the world which you are selling at such a cheap rate for the public. If it was sold at Rs. 50 instead of at Rs. 10 it would have been very cheap. Mr. Sayed Sahabuddin, Collector's office, Anantapur, Madras, writes—I went to the Medical officer again on 7-7-21 and he examined me. the Vandeville Actors who went to country to find the real Man.

What makes "The Garter Girl" impress the spectator so strongly and cause him to recall it with pleasing memories? Is it her exquisite costumes? Is it due to the strong supporting cast, the clever direction, the beautiful snow scenes or the picturesque life behind the footlights? All of these go to complete the picture, and it is a safe bet that "The Garter Girl" is a film masterpiece because of all these sterling qualities.

Surprises, suspense, humor and love are cleverly blended in a background of artistic beauty set off by thrills and spectacular feats. It is not a story of the impossible. Neither is it a tale of weird, fantastic imaginings but rather a story of life as it exists. It is the beautiful simplcity, the closeness to human nature and events that come within the range of the average mortal that make "The Garter Girl" something more than a mere film feature. It becomes a living, pulsating, reality telling life's story with all of its queer little twists and turns.

"The Garter Girl"

Beautiful Stenic Effecil—Splendid dancing—dazzling Costumes!

If you like those wriggly snakelike movements that characterize the Egyptian dances and the gauzelike dresses of a bygone day then you will find much of interest in "The Garter Girl." Aside from an intensely interesting story of theatrical and small town life there is an atmosphere of the spectacular and bizarre that will please the most exacting: It is a story of life as it is with a clever dittle twist and many scenes taken behind the footlights.

"The Garter Girl"

A Drama that will inscirate YOU!

Corinne Griffith as Rosalie Ray in "The Garter Girl" demonstrates one reason why a Girl might return to the old life after leaving the stage to settle down in a small village. It is a story filled with human interest, spectacular, bizarre and entertaining. Miss Griffith had several gowns designed especially for her wear in this production,

POONA RACES.

9TH EXTRA MEETINGS.

SELECTION BY JOVE.

THE OCTOBER PLATE. Division I.

By running 2nd to NIGHT BOMBER on Wednesday, LOMOND'S PRIDE put up performance that makes him a good thing in this race. Next I like LOMO with ZEA for third place.

THE OCTOBER PLATE. Division II.

On her last running MIRABELLE looks to me a winner here. BELLE VOYAGEUSE got away none too well last Wednesday and then ran a place. I like her to run second with SHE SHE next. Nerissa in case of scratchings.

THE OCTOBER PLATE. Division III.

I cant see any one with an outstanding chance in this race. SOSPELLO—THE O'MALLEY—ROCK FERRY are the three which I would expect to run well with FLYING DART the upset.

THE DECCAN PLATE.—Distance 1¼ miles.

MOUNTAIN APPLE on Calcutta form should win with SUGAR CANE and COME ON next.

THE GOOD-BYE PLATE.—Distance 1¼ miles.

I like GOOD STAR in this lot to win.

KITCHENER has been running very consistently and should run 2nd with PENINSULAR 3rd.

THE COVENTRY STEEPLECHASE.—Distance 2¼ miles.

CENTRE, DAROJI II and GEND II is the order in which I place them

THE FINAL PLATE.—Distance 6 furlongs.

CENTRY should about run the others off their legs. BRINDISI, HUNTSMAN and SHUMS to fight for places.

THE LONSDALE HANDICAP.—Distance 6 furlongs.

ILA'S FANCY is my fancy. MEG MERRILIES and LARANJA for places.

THE DONCASTER PLATE.—Distance 5 furlongs.

This is perhaps the mostly difficult race of the day. I think DOUBLE WIN should make amends for her late failures and win. BELLE SYME is another very fast mare over 5 and should get a certain place with VIOLA 3rd. MURMANSK the outsider.

THE EXCELSIOR THEATRE.

THE RUSSIAN PLAYERS.

It is very peculiar how are gradually gets used to a company of performers speaking, and singing their respective parts in a foreign tongue. Perhaps in particular there is a certain amount of facination about the Russian language which commands our attention. Inasmuch that we think. The Russian players have every reason to feel confident about every change of programme they present to us; although some of us I presume do not understand their language. The English Synopsis is very helpful. What I like principally about hte Russian Players, is the collective effort which is prevalent throughout their performances, their enthusiasm for detail and the preference they appear to have for light and tuneful entertainment rather than for a predominance of heavy stuff.
Those who have entertained us individually have delighted us whether it has been, either in song or dance.
From an artistic point of view, scenic effects leave little to be desired. Perhaps I should say I liked in particular, the Russian forest scene, wonderful in its "coldness," yet relieved by the warm glow of a camp fire very effective.
Whether the Russian Players are to entertain us for three weeks only, or whether for a much longer period I am not in a position to say, but I feel certain our Bombay theatregoers whil look forward eagerly to each fresh change of programme presented.

ALEXANDRA CINEMA,

The Alexandra has on the screen "Once to Every Woman." The story deals with a small town girl who is discovered to have a voice. She is sent to Italy to study, wins her laurels at the Metropolitan Opera House and smiles condescendingly down on the world at her feet. How she learns that selfishness is the greatest blight on happiness, forms the theme of the story.

THE EMPIRE AND THE EMPRESS.

One of the most remarkable films ever shown in Bombay, "The Son of Tarzan" is proving an unrivalled attraction, shown simultaneously at the Empire and Empress Theatres.
"Tarzan, junior" is an entertaning character, and the youthful Meriem is full of charm. But more attractive than anything else is the seting of the film, and the dexterity and originality shown in the arrangement of he "stunts."

EXCELSIOR.

The No. 2 programme is artistic comic film entitled the "Primitive Women."
The Bandman Opera Company (its title is a misnomer for it is really a musical comedy company) is bringing to the Excelsior Theatre an altogether fresh repertoire of musical trifles. It opens on the 15th with "Bran Pie," which was first produced at the Prince of Wales's in London; it follows this revue up with Oh! Joy!" a musical farce; and "Afgar" from the London Pavilion, will succeeded by "Buzz Buzz," from the Vaudeville Theatre, London, and "The Better Ole."

CINEMA MAJESTIC

"The Bearded Four," a wonder of a mystery serial running every week at the ..... Theatre in which Ben Wilson and Neva Gerber are starred there is hardly a trick of the "Underworld" that is not exposed.
From a plain ordinary "stick-up" as a hold-up is known, to the decoy message and the beautiful vamp luring her victims to a room where the old "panel game" is worked, the drama runs the gamut of crookdom's wiles.

WEST-END CINEMA.

"The Garter Girl," which will be seen at the West End, this week, is one of Corinne Griffith's best efforts. It is a story that will appeal to thousands of picture fans throughout the country because of its theatrical and rural atmosphere. Miss Griffith has a role that calls for great diversity of action and characterization. From the care free headliner on a vaudeville bill to the prim little soloist in the village church is quite a jump and calls for versatility. Miss Griffith rises to great heights in her interpretation of the role. Her personality, her mannerisms and attractive gowns lend themselves well to the portrayal of Rosalie Bay, the girl who left the stage to go to the country in search of a real man, a man unlike those who hang around the stage door. She found that all men were alike.

CINEMA PRECIOUS.

The first episode of the Universal chapter play, "The White Horseman," starring Art Accord will be shown to-night at the Precious. This picture gives promise of holding the interest throughout its eighteen episodes, with the proper amount of suspense and thrilling incidents. The story concerns a lost opal mine and the efforts of unscrupulous relatives to gain control of the mine from the ranch owner on whose property the underground workings are located. A historical novelty is introduced into the story in connection with the location of the mine.

GLOBE CINEMA.

Messrs. K. D. and Brothers are offering this week one more interesting Indian Mythological Picture at the Globe Cinema, Sandhurst Road. The subject is an episode from the age old History of the wars between the Pandavas and the Kauravas. The Indian Film is entitled. "Tridandi Sanyas"—and is worth seeing.

CASE AGAINST TICKET COLLECTORS.

EXAMINATION OF WITNESS.

Before Mr. G. R. Khairaz, Third Presidency Magistrate, at the Esplanade Police Court yesterday the two Ticket Collectors of Victoria Terminus Station, (1) A. N. Azvedo and (2) M. Hodginson, appeared to answer the charge of causing hurt and abetment to Messrs. Jivraj Gokuldas Nensi and Jamnadas Gokuldas Nensi, the facts of which are already reported in these columns.

Mr. Mohanlal M. Desai with Mr F F Nariman appeared for the complainants while the accused were defended by Mr. M. B. Kolasker, Bar-at-Law.

Mr. Jivraj G. Nensi who was further cross examined by Mr. Kolasker, said that he remembered about the Matunga incident. He had written a letter in the "Bombay Chronicle" in February last regarding two Ticket Collectors who had whipped passengers. He did not remember of his servant had ever attempted to pass excess luggage. He did not hear any shouts of "Maro, maro Salako". He had his ticket with him. He was assaulted because he protested against the accused pushing the passengers. He had gone to the Station Superintendents twice.

Mr. Kolasker was putting questions which he had already asked yesterday when His Worship remarked that he was giving one more opportunity to cross-examine the witness, but he should not put the same questions again.

Witness then described how he was assaulted. When he got the belt, he caught hold of it, and protected to the assailant, so which he replied by abuses.

He did not see F. E. Master. He did not se even major. In his experience of 15 years he did not know Market side gate. He did not report the loss of his spectacles to the Police. He had shown the scratch he got to the Court. He did not see the weapon by which he got blows. Some people were carrying umbrellas but he was sure it was nobody's umbrella that hit him.

HRIJEE UMERSI.

Examined by Mr. Mohanlal, Mr. Umersi said he was a merchant. The Ticket Collectors flourishing belts and Jamnadas getting injury.

Cross-examined witness said he knew complainants by sight. He was about 20 feet behind the complainants. Besides complainants others might have been injured. He did not see himself.

JAMNADAS LADHA.

Jamnadas Ladh examined by Mr. Mohanlal Desai corroborated the previous witnesses, and identified the accused as assailants.

Cross-examined the witness said he was 10-12 feet behind the complainants. He had umbrella but could not possibility sy had umbrella but could not positively say how many of the crowd had umbrellas and how many not. Accused No. 1 was outside and No. 2 was inside the gate. He was not hurt himself. He saw some passengers actually struck by the belts. He did not go to the Station Superintendent.

The case was then adjourned till 12th instant.

THE PRINCE AND THE PARSIS.

TRUSTEES' ACTION ULTRAVIRES.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—At last, my friend, Mr. Faredun Dadachanji has broken his silence. He admits, in clear terms, that "the Trustees are in no sense representatives of the community; that their step is unconstitutional: and that they have absolutely no right to speak a word on behalf of the community without its mandate." And yet my able friend contends, that as the Trustees have communicated with the Government the proposed address to the Prince should be presented, and that a protest should be sent to the Trustees disapproving their action!!! Is this proposal rational or ethical? Let us see:—

(1) The Trustees have communicated with the Government without any right or authority from the community!

(2) And further more in the face of the protest of the writer and his friends!

(3) The Trustees action is unconstitutional and arbitrary. Hwo can Mr. Dadachanji or his friends, or his orthodox majority sanction or bless the Trustees' action without convening the meeting of the community?

(4) There is the opposition of one thousand ladies and gentlemen. Can it be ignored by the Trustees-legally or morally?

(4) Does Mr. Dadachanji remember how he and his friends broke up Sir P. M. Mehta's Memorial meeting, not because there was any disagreement as to its object, but all because of the arbitrary procedure adopted by Sir Jamsetjee Jeejibhoy at the time?

(5) In the present case, the position is worse. There is strong difference of opinion as regards the presentation of communal address; and furthermore, the procedure, the procedure adopted by the Trustees is unconstitutional. And yet, I am simply amazed to find, how Mr. Dadachanji ignores these two important issues—namely, of principle and procedure and is guided by his own notions of expediency. He apprehends that as the Trustees have communicated with the Government they cannot withdraw; and if they do so, the relations subsisting between the Parsis and the Government would be adversely affected! Even granting for a moment that the relations are favourable to the Parsis which I have proved and can prove again that they are not—will not the arbitrary and unconstitutional action of the Trustees impair the harmony, which has been re-established recently between the Parsis and the sister communities? If the Trustees and their friends and supporters are determined to present an address to the Prince, they can give it in the name of friends and admirers. But if they persist in presenting it in the name of the community they will be responsible for the consequences. It is thus clear, that the compromise suggested by Mr. Dadachanji is neither rational nor ethical and can never be accepted by the Protestants.
—Yours, etc.,

BANK CLERKS IN TROUBLE

MAGISTRATE'S REMARKS ON HANDCUFFING

At the Esplanade Police Court before Rao Bahadur C. H. Setalvad, Police Sergeant McCulloch charged (1) Vasanji Gopalji and (2) Bhimbhi Nagji, clerks in the Punjab National Bank on a charge of breach of trust by servants in respect of Rs. 6250.

Mr. Mohanlal M. Desai appeared for the accused.

It appears from evidence that accused Vasanji was sent to collect about Rs. 39,000 and odd from various banks on the 4th instant. He collected the amount and gave a bundle of notes to accused No. 2 and went home. In the evening when accused No. 2 handed over the amount to the Cashier Motilal, it was discovered that a sum of Rs. 6,250 was short. A complaint was lodged at the Paltan Road Police Station and both the accused aforesaid were arrested and brought before the Court.

The accused's defence was that there was a big room in the bank where they sat as well as the cashier. Customers and severas persons frequenting the bank on business sat close by th table where the money was kept. Cashier Motilal has told the police that he did not suspect the accused, that they have been trustworthy and were entrusted with lakhs of rupees. Accused were respectable men and this was a case of suspicion only.

An application was made by Mr. Mohanlal M. Desai to release the accused on bail, but it was not granted. The Court however told, the Police officer in charge of the case to release the accused if there was no case against them, and to place them before the Court sooner, if the case was ready.

At this stage Mr. Mohanlal Desai drew attention of the Court to the fact that the accused were handcuffed. His Worship was surprised to see this, and asked the police officer since when this practice was going on? He remarked that only in the cases when accused were charged of murder and violence should be handcuffed.

The case was postponed till the 10th instant.

MAHOMEDAN MEETING AT MADANPURA.

Under the auspices of the Central Khilafat Committee of India, a public meeting was held on Thursday, at 9 p.m. (B. T.) at Madanpura (Dhobi Khada), under the presidency of Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad, to deal with the questions of Swadeshi, the boycott of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales' visit, and the removal of the European Missionary lady appointed as Superintendent in the Girls' school in Madanpura. About 6,000 people were present.

Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad, Maulana Ahmed Mukhtiar, Prof. Kaunshik and others address the meeting. The following resolutions were passed:—

RESOLUTION I.

"That this meeting condemns the appointment of a European Missionary lady to the Madanpura Mahomedan Girls' school by the Municipal Joint Committee, and asks the Schools Committee to remove the lady from that school. If the School Committee fails to do the needful in the matter, this meeting requests the parents of the girls in that school to discontinue sending them there."

RESOLUTION II.

"That this meeting resolves to boycott H. R. H. the Prince of Wales' visit to India."

The President said that it was the duty of the Mussalmans to maintain their "Iman," to keep to Swadeshi, and to keep themselves out of the army of the Government.

Prof. Kaunshik asked the audience to throw away their foreign clothes and to use Swadeshi clothes. When Prof. Kaunshik was speaking on the subject of Swadeshi, the audience threw away their foreign coats and caps. Two umbrellas were also brought for condemnation, they being foreign, but they were subsequently returned by the President to their owners, as they did not form part of those articles which are to be boycotted.

Maulana Mukhtiar asked the audience to give their mite to the Angora Fund and told them that he had received a telegram from Rangoon to the effect that the Mussalmans of that place had contributed the sum of Rs. 13,000 to the Angora Fund. The speaker announced the collection of the Angora Fund, which came to about Rs. 218. The auction sale of a foreign-made thimble fetched Rs. 2, and three silver buttons were sold by auction for Rs. 4. The speaker exhorted his Hindu and Mussalman brothers not to join the army and the police of Government.

MEETING OF BOMBAY MUSLIMS

KARACHI RESOLUTION RE-AFFIRMED

CONGRATULATIONS TO KEMAL PASHA

BOYCOTT OF PRINCE'S VISIT.

A meeting of Moslems of Bombay was held last night at Mastanshah Tank, Moulana Abul Kalam Azad presiding. There was a very large audience of Musalmans, including a good number of Hindus.

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.

The president said they had met there at a critical time, perhaps the most critical time since the last 18 months. Their leaders had been arrested for passing a resolution which the National Congress, the Khilafat Conference and other representative bodies had passed and which had again and again been passed from numerous platforms all over the country. Nothing was done so far but all of a sudden their leaders had been arrested for following the tenets of their religion. But so long as they had life they would follow their religion in spite of all opposition. Their religion had forbidden them to fight against their own religion and whether they were civilians or soldiers it was their clear duty to follow their religion whatever it might cost them to do so. The resolution had been passed by Muslims at a large number of meetings, but no steps had yet been taken by Government against them.

RESOLUTION OF THE MEETING.

Moulana Azad Sobhani then moved the first resolution which, while endorsing the Karachi and Gokak resolutions offered "hearty congratulations to Ghazi Mustafa Komal Pasha and the Government of Angora on their brilliant victories and heroic efforts for the preservation of the Islamic Empire" and prayed "the Almighty that they may similarly succeed, as early as possible, in expelling alien forces from every corner of the Turkish territories."

He said as long as the British Government continued its present policy it was the bounden duty of Musalmans, if they had any "izzat" and sense of shame, to follow the resolution entirely and stand by it if they wanted to right their Khilafat wrongs and get Swaraj. By arresting their leaders Government had attacked their religion and it was their duty to withstand such attacks.

MOULANA HASRAT MOHANI.

Moulana Hasrat Mohani said the resolution was not a new one; true it was passed at the different Khilafat meetings at Gokak, Karachi, etc., but it was a resolution passed 1,300 years ago and it was not a new one. It was the Imperialism which was at the bottom of all their trouble.

Sheth Haji Ismail Haji Ahmed Sahib, Mr. Vithaldas Jerajani, Mr. Mojawalla, Mr. Mahomed Ismail Gaznavi and Mr. I. B. Patel further supported the resolution. Mr. Patel said it was more a matter of Swaraj and religion than anything else. If they had Swaraj no body would have dared to touch them. But what was the use of merely giving their oral support to the resolution unless they put it into practice. And now could they do it best, except by wearing Swadeshi. He said very little sign of it at the meeting and if they could not wear the white Khaddar, could they expect anything more from them?

The resolution was then passed, all standing.

BOYCOTT OF PRINCE'S VISIT.

Mrs. Naidu then moved:—"This meeting of the Musalmans of Bombay announces publicly a complete boycott of all demonstrations and functions concerning the intended visit of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, and expects that all Musalmans, keeping in view the religious obligations regarding the Khilafat the Jaziratul-Arab and Swaraj, would make this boycott a complete success, with utmost firmness and perseverence.

Mrs. Naidu said they refused to welcome the Prince because India was in mourning. Their leaders were in the jail and their wrongs were still not righted. If their grievances had been righted they would have welcomed the Prince. Their co-religionists in Smyrna were still suffering from a cruel enemy and they were in no holiday mood. It was 1,360 years ago that their Prophet had told them that their religious places should be under the control of Musalmans and it was not a new thing they were asking. She as the President of the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee asked them not to participate in the welcome to the Prince and let them remember their grievances when they passed the resolution.

Mr. H. S. Khatri seconding the resolution said the Englishmen like Sydenham and Curzon who had eaten the salt of India had betrayed their cause. Could they ever welcome the Prince when they had so many grievances to be righted. He hoped they would boycott the visit.

Mr. Yakub Hussan said they might pass the resolution here, but when there was costly tamasha perhaps they might not be able to withstand the temptation. It was their duty when they passed the resolution to observe it implicitly.

After some others had spoken the resolution was passed.

"PUSSY FOOT ON THE STROLL."

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—You deserve sincere congratulations from the public at large in speaking out their real mind through your editorial comments on "Pussyfoot' on the Stroll." Whilst we should depend upon ourselves and ourselves alone it is the duty of a servant of humanity like Pussyfoot to "act on at any rate welcome the Prohibitionists at the task" in our country, as you so rightly remark.—Yours, etc.,

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

WHAT WILL LORD READING DO?

Izzet Pasha, according to Reuter's Constantinople correspondent, has "voiced the growing Turkish disposition in favour of peace by declaring that the Turks desire to see the Sultanate and Khilafat strengthened and the administration of Turkey developed by a treaty on constitutional lines." and that "Turkey had not yet made an official request for intervention, but he applauded the outside efforts in this direction." It is not quite clear what exactly Izzel Pasha means by developing the administration of Turkey by a treaty on constitutional lines. However that may be, it is clear that the Constantinople Turks have full confidence that the Angora Nationalists, under the guidance of the great leader, will be able to drive away the Greek marauders from their homelands and secure for their country a triumphant and satisfactory peace. Ghazi Mustafa Kemal has already made his intentions clear that he will not agree to any settlement short of driving out the Greeks from Asia Minor and Thraece and he has declared his ability to carry out his intentions by force of arms. The obstacle in the path of Turkey coming into her own lies in the attitude of the Allies. The recent decisive victory of the Nationalists, the magnitude of which anti-Turk European propagandists, helped by Reuter's have sought to minimise, has not been very pleasant news to certain of the Allies who had secret hopes of carrying out their own selfish schemes through Greek successes. Now that the tide has turned in favour of the Turks, attempts are likely to be made, if they are not already being made, to save these schemes from utter ruin by securing the intervention of the Allies with a view to bring about peace between Turkey and Greece. This attitude of mind is reflected in the comments of a large section of the English Press, which maintained a policy of indifference while the Greeks were marching victoriously towards Angora, but which, now that the Turks have turned the tables on the Greeks, have suddenly adopted a different tone. That they should express a desire for intervention with a view to the settlement of the war is not only natural but laudable. It is not Turkey who is seeking peace, as inspired cabled message would have us believe. Nevertheless, no-one would welcome real and honourable peace more than the Turk who has suffered most. But the Allies must intervene not to deprive the Turks of the legitimate fruits of victory, but to secure a comprehensive settlement of the Turkish question by the tearing-up of the Treaty of Sevres so that the Turks come into their own and the requirements of Islamic law are fulfilled to the entire satisfaction of the Muslim world. Such a settlement is not impossible if only England wills it; for evidence accumulates from day to day that while France and Italy are sympathetic towards the Turkish claim for justice, the attitude of the present British Government, for reasons which have been frequently indicated in these columns, delays a satisfactory settlement. The "Westminister Gazette" commenting on the Viceroy's reply to the Delegation of the Punjab Muslim Association, says that between the lines of the speech can be read the embarassment in which the Viceroy and every British administrator in the East are placed by the present uncertainty of the Western policy towards the Moslem world. The Western policy is guided by Britain and its characteristic is not uncertainty. There has been a method in that policy in regard to which the Muslim world has had no illusion. It was thus vividly summed bp by "The Nation" recently in a passage which was quoted in thse columns and which bears repetition.

"Our policy in Turkey has been disastrous for many reasons—its waste of our own resources, its pursuit of material ends like the acquisition of oil, its tendency to embroil us with the Americans and the French, its ignoring of Russia's interest in the freedom of the Straits, its undue emphasis on our own naval power, its brushing aside of the League of Nations, its encouragement of a war which may reduce Asia Minor to ruin and famine, its excessive partisanship for inflated Greek claims, its pretension to subject Turkey not to disinterested international control but to economic vassalage under the victors. Moslems put this broad case more simply. They call it a policy directed against Islam. That it is certainly not in intention, but it well may be so in effect."

That policy has got to be changed not in words merely, but in deed. As the "Westminster Gazette" says, a settlement of the Turkish question is long overdue. If the British Government had remained true to the solemn pledges given to Indian Muslims and resisted the claims of "Christian" sentiment to the exclusion of their honour, we would have long ago had a living peace in place of a still-born one in the Near East. But because the opportunist British Premier could not resist the blandishment of the now fallen Venizelos and spurned the dictates of conscience and the voice of reason, there arose all the complications which have embittered Muslim and Indian feeling against Great Britain. But Mr. Lloyd George would fain juggle with facts and have the world believe that white was black and vice versa. In this he was merely following the crooked diplomacy of the West. And the result was the Greek aggression against Turkey and a needless protraction of all the horrors and sufferings of war.

The "Westminster Gazette" says:—

"We must awaken from this lethargy if we are to keep our position in the East. It is not fair to the Viceroy and other administrators in the East that they should be left in the position of having perpetually to make feeble explanations and apologies, while a long overdue settlement is held up by timidity, procrastination and the mutual differences of Western Governments."

Lord Reading, however, need not feel himself bound to make feeble explanations and apologies. If His Excellency has any feeling of embarassment, as the journal suggests, the feeling is due to the fact that he considers himself the head of a Government which must always be the obedient tool of the British Government now guided by the Lloyd-Georges and the Curzons who are the chief obstacles to a just settlement of the Turkish question. We earnestly ask Lord Reading to rid himself of this notion and to be alive to the tremendous significance of his position as the Viceroy of India at the most critical juncture in her history and that of the Empire of which she is now a part. It is true that as the Governor-General of India he must carry out the wishes of the Imperial Government. But Lord Reading is not merely a Governor-General. He is the Viceroy—the representative of the King-Emperor of India. If Lord Reading is to be true to his Sovereign, who is also the Sovereign of the Indian people, he is in honour bound to advise His Majesty's Government to desist from a policy that he must realise is opposed to the best interests of the Empire as well as to the sentiments of three hundred million of His Majesty's subjects. If Lord Reading is, however, convinced that Mr. Lloyd George's policy towards Turkey and Islam is the right one, the let His Excellency say so frankly Indians, and Indian Muslims in particular will in that event, know where they stand. But we have not yet lost hope in regard to Lord Reading. We hope he will yet realise that the task he has to face and the responsibility that is consequently his, are no ordinary ones. The British Empire is at the parting of the ways. Whether that Empire is worth ten years' purchase depends on no single living individual so much as on Lord Reading. The greatest problem that the Empire has to face is that arising out of the iniquitous Treaty of Sevres on the revision of which depend peace not only in India but in all Asia—and the existence of the Empire. The key to its solution is the conciliation of Muslims. The conditions of conciliation are the fulfilment of Mr. Lloyd George's pledges and the settlement of the Khilafat in accordance with the requirements of Islamic law. No greater problem has faced any individual since the declaration of the war with Germany. And in the greatness of the problem lies the unique privilege of Lord Reading. Will His Excellency, who belongs to the East, respond to the call of the East and take the only right decision which, by reconciling the Muslims, will bring Asia and Europe together for all time? And the right decision is to make the cause of India and Indian Muslims the cause of his own Government and to tell the Imperial Government that there can be and must be no settlement of the Turkish question except that which enables the Turks to come into their own and which is in accordance with the requirements of Islam. What British Government dare flout the advice of a Viceroy who has behind him the support of an entire nation? In making the cause of Muslims his own and thus reconciling Asia to Europe, Lord Reading will win a glory greater than that won by any Viceroy before him. Has his Excellency the vision of a Beaconsfield to rise to the full height of his opportunity —an opportunity that comes but once in many centuries?

As a preliminary to the decision we urge him to take, Lord Reading must recognise the wisdom of withdrawing the Karachi prosecutions which, whatever their narrowly legal justification, have, already rudely shaken the faith of the people in the religious neutrality of the Government which, in the ultimate analysis, is the strongest bond that unites India with Britain. Whether the people are justified in feeling so is beside the point. Statesmanship has got to face facts; and the facts are that the Indian people as a whole, and Muslims particularly, are stirred to their depths by nothing so much as religion which, rightly or wrongly, regulates the course of their national life —the reformer's noble dream of a time when religion will universally become a personal affair between the individual and his God and the relations between individuals and nations will be governed by the highest moral laws, is yet to be realised—that they recognise the supremacy of what to them are divine laws to man-made laws in regulating their personal conduct. Having regard to these facts, the question which statesmanship must ask itself is whether the law of the land should always be enforced according to the letter or whether the narrowly disciplinary point of view should not, in exceptional circumstances, be subordinated to considerations not only of political expediency, to use the word in its best sense, but also of the requirements of the maxim that law must be administered according to justice, equity and good conscience. The Karachi resolution has been openly endorsed at hundreds of meetings throughout the country. If no legal action is taken against the thousands who have passed the resolution, is it in accordance with equity and good conscience that the Karachi prosecutions should be continued, apart from the fact that the failure to withdraw them, in the circumstance, would, as we pointed out on a previous occasion, be a deadly blow to the prestige of the Government? There is yet another consideration which statesmanship never ignores. It is this that it is not enough, specially in a matter which affects the entire community, that justice should be administered, but it is essential that people should feel that justice has been administered. How can they feel so when they see thousands of people go untouched for saying that for which the accused in the Karachi case are being tried? The narrowly "legal" aspect of the prosecution does not concern us. The all-important consideration that we wish to urge with all the earnestness we command, is that conciliation should be the key-note of the policy of the Government of Lord Reading if they recognise the wisdom of saving the Empire by making the cause of Muslims their own. And Lord Reading cannot give a more striking proof of his earnestness of purpose in embarking on such a policy than by withdrawing the prosecutions. Not only will he thereby enhance his own prestige but also that of his Government, who will then speak to the British Government with the voice of all India—that is, with a voice that will be heard. The "danger" which panic stricken officials are now scenting in the present situation will immediately be found to be non existent. What will Lord Reading do?

THE CALL

The appeal of the Working Committee of the Indian National Congress to the various Congress organisations to put forth special efforts to bring about a complete boycott of foreign cloth in their respective districts before the end of the current month and to that end organise the manufacture of cloth by hand-spinning and hand-weaving, is also a stirring call to each and every individual forming the Indian nation to do his duty to the Motherland at the present hour of trial. We are glad to note that since the return of Mahatma Gandhi in our midst, "Khaddar" is getting more and more in evidence than heretofore, in the streets, trains, trams and the public offices of Bombay, indicating that more and more people are coming to realise the need of their donning home-spun cloth. But the progress that is being made towards the clothing of the population in pure "Khaddar" is, unfortunately, not still commensurate with the paramount needs of the hour. If any Indian is sincere in his love of the land that has given him birth and if he genuinely believes that the sovereign remedy, in the present circumstances, for the grievous wrongs from which the country is suffering, is non-violent non-cooperation and if at the same time he sees that one of the essential means of emancipating the country from her economic and political bondage is the boycott of foreign cloth and use of indigenous hand-made and hand-woven cloth, then he ought to consider it his sacred duty to discard all foreign clothing and use only hand spun and hand-woven cloth.

It is a matter of surprise as well as regret that Government servants in Bombay, even though the official ban on the "Khaddar" has been formally removed by the Governor of Bombay, are still lagging behind in their use of it. What is it that prevents them from donning purely Swadeshi articles of dress, save the slave-mentality which is ingrained in many of them as a result of the atmosphere in which they breathe? But, since Sir George Lloyd himself, we are informed, has given all the departments to understand that no one will be penalised for wearing Khaddar dress, there can be no honest excuse for any Government servant, if he sincerely loves his country, to fight shy of "Khaddar." But, apart from Government servants, there are other classes, even more numerous, who, because of their ignorance and illiteracy, have not yet realised the need of using "Khaddar" cloth. To such of them, the message of "Khaddar" should be carried by their more enlightened countrymen. For this purpose and so that all classes of people may come to realise the obligation resting on them to use only purely indigenous cloth, it is necessary that a much more intensive propaganda should be carried on by the Congress organisations in this city and all over the country than has been the case hitherto to bring the message of "Khaddar" to every door in every village and town and with a view to meet the demand for it organised steps should be taken to manufacture both yarn and cloth in every village and town. Will the people of this country rise equal to the situation? They will deserve Swaraj only if they acquit themselves as the dutiful sons and daughters of their country.

More of "Liberalism."

We do not know if the "Cooperators" in the Bombay Legislative Council are proud of their achievements during this session of the Council. Not only did a good many of them oppose the proposal to separate the executive from the judicial functions immediately but , one of the pillars of "Cooperation" helped to defeat the resolution by his casting vote. As for the Ministers and Indian members of the Executive Council, one of them, namely, Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola, is reported to have been absent when the voting took place, while his colleague, Sir C. Setalvad, we learn—and we hope we are not correctly informed—voted against the resolution! And yet Sir Chimanlal is a follower of the "Old" Congress and a staunch Liberal (new style)! As for Messrs. Paranjpye, Mehta and Hidayatulla, we are informed they refrained from voting. But if Sir Chimanlal was at liberty to vote according to his (officialised) conscience, we do not see the point of the Ministers alone maintaining a neutral attitude. But whatever their excuses for the different roles they adopted, there is no gainsaying the fact the Indian members of Government materially aided the reactionary element in the Council in postponing the tackling of one of the most urgent reforms. The Central Legislature refused to take the initiative in the matter on the ground that it was properly the function of the Provincial Legislature. But the latter, at least in Bombay, is unwilling to undertake the task, though more than a decade ago both the Local Government and the Council had agreed that the reform was feasible as well as desirable. Who, after this, will not say that we are fast progressing in the "New Era and that our Liberals" are not followers of the old Congress creed?

Bombay Development.

The squandermania of the Bombay Development Department met with some rebuff in the Legislative Council the other day. The members, who in their first flush of success, were careless of their responsibilities when the Development grants were under debate, during the March session, took the opportunity afforded by the Department's demand for 85 lakhs, to give vent to the public feeling of grave mistrust of the Department and put up a fairly strong though unsuccessful opposition to its arbitrary and irresponsible methods. Of course, an attempt was made by the apologists of the Department to camouflage the demand as being nothing extraordinary and to show that if the Department spent more this year it would spend less next year and that the total sum would not be exceeded in any way. We cannot, of course, take this assurance complacently, and we are glad that a section of the members at least vigorously fought against the extravagance and unbusinesslike methods of the Department. What is of practical interest is the fact that the Development Department does not possess the confidence of even the whole Council. Save a few members, nobody had a good word to say of the "autocratic, reckless and unbusinesslike way in which things had been managed in the past." Some members, whose motives it is not difficulty to probe, indulged in some tall talk about "manufactured" opposition. It would have been better if the truth had been told as to how in one way or another the very natural opposition to squandering public moneys on speculative ventures had been attempted to be cajoled, and only when it failed to produce any effect that the Department and its henchmen began giving themselves the air of injured innocence. Sir Chimanlal shirked the issue in not meeting squarely the grounds of complaint, and by trying to explain it away that what was intended was a little re-shuffling—a little juggery with figures. We do not think that this assumption is correct. However that may be, if the spirit of crit'cism has invaded the Council chamber, it is only right; for not even the most perfect department of Government can impose for ever on the credulity of trusting people.

Catch-words.

Some people when they have found a catch-word think that they have got everything they want In the first meeting of the "reformed" Council Rao Bahadur Chitale made the Town Hall ring with his chant on the "classes and masses." and he was at it again in Poona it appears. Now in regard to the Back Bay Scheme, whoever imagined that the Government were fighting on behalf of the "masses" against the classes in taking up the chimerical and costly scheme? Whoever could have said that the costly reclamation scheme was for the purpose of housing "the masses"? But that is exactly what Mr. Chitale has discovered! When the estimates were placed before the Council, Mr. Chitale, who was wroth because no opportunity was given him of delivering his oration on the sins of commission and omission of the Department, said that the Council should vote against the proposal, otherwise judgment would go by default. Since then, perhaps, Mr. Chitale has had opportunities of closely looking into the working of the Department from Ahmednagar, otherwise he would not have been rash enough to give his blessings to the extravagance of the Development Department. If Mr. Chitale had studied the local conditions properly enough, or known them more intimately, he would not have been so rash in his accusations and inuendoes.

Stop Animal Sacrifices.

The Bombay Humanitarian League, which is doing excellent work in the cause of lower animals, has issued a timely appeal to the public to stop the custom of sacrificing animals to propitiate their gods. The appeal expresses the grateful satisfaction of the League to those Indian Princes who, at its instance, have prohibited such sacrifices within their territories. There are other States where the appeal has not yet received any response, but it is to be hoped that the example of the more enlightened States will be copied everywhere in this country in which every species of life is generally held sacred, and that the cruel—and senseless—practice of killing animals will soon become a thing of the past. It is too late in the day to emphasise the truth of the ancient Hindu maxim of Ahimsa Paramadharma. Its appeal, however, is not only to Hindus but to all those who feel sympathy for the great ideal embodied in those words. We hope enlightened public opinion will assert itself and help in putting.

He was so impressed by this spirit that he was going to spend the rest of his life in fighting for the League. The greatest of the great things it had accomplished this year had been the establishment of the International Court of Justice, which was an enormous step towards the peace of the universe.

Referring to Russia, Dr. Hansen said that it was unavoidable that two to three millions of lives would be lost, but he did not believe it possible that the Governments of Europe would do nothing. Refusal to help was the best way of helping Bolshevism.

FAMINE IN BELLARY.

Another story of the death of a woman on the roadside was due to cholera and not due to hunger and fatigue.

REPORTED U. S. DEMAND FOR BRITISH DEBT.

AN AUTHORITATIVE DENIAL.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Oct. 6.
Recd. 1 p.m., Oct. 7.

An authoritative denial has been issued to the sensational statement yesterday declaring that the United States were pressing Britain for the repayment of the War Debts amounting to nearly a thousand millions sterling. It is emphasised that the United States would not desire to prejudice the issues of the Washington Conference by raising such an important and embarrassing subject at the present time, the effect of which would be that Britain would be compelled to press France, Belgium and Italy, to pay their respective debts to Britain, thereby intensifying international trade difficulties. It is pointed out that while President Harding is opposed to the question of war debts being discussed at the Washington Conference, he is heartily in favour of easy payments for the benefit of the debtor nations

LONDON, Oct. 6.

The British Government is taking up with the Washington Government the question of entry of the British subjects into the United States. This is due to the fact that many cases both British and otherwise have lately occurred where individuals who have obtained the necessary visa to proceed to New York have found on their arrival there that under the recent Immigration Restriction Law the total monthly number of people permitted entry from the country to which they belong has already been reached and they therefore have become liable to detention at the Ellis Island and subjected to many hardships. Such persons may either be admitted at a later date or repatriated forthwith.

SIMLA COMMUNIQUE.

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE IN MESPOT

NEWSPAPER ALLIGATIONS REFUTED.

(From our Correspondent.)

The attention of the Government has been called to various articles and letters published during the early part of this year in the newspapers such as "Samyavadi," "Young India" and "Siyasat" giving publicity to complaints of the treatment of Indians serving in Mesopotamia. These complaints varied considerably in character some taxed the authorities in Mesopotamia with failure to keep faith with their employees in the matter of their agreements.

Others contained merely vague allegations of general ill-treatment, while in some specific assertions were made that high caste Indians were forced to do sweepers work described by the correspondents as of daily occurence. As the result of careful enquiries made in Mesopotamia these allegations have been found to be absolutely baseless seeing that the number of applications for appointments.

In Mesopotamia exceeds the number of vacancies and that great many men who have served a term there ask to be re-employed it is evident that the conditions of service must be generally satisfatory. The Employees in Mesopotamia get far higher pay than they would in India. They receive also free rations or a liberal money allowances instead, free clothing and free accommodation. Leave is granted after two year's service to those whose service has been satisfactory.

BOMBAY COUNCIL.

RESOLUTION ON SUKKUR BARRAGE SCHEME PASSED.

(From our own Correspondent.)

POONA, Oct. 7.

At question time to-day replying to Mr. Kanji Dwarkadas, Hon'ble Mr. Lawrence stated that the question of meeting the deficits expected in the excise revenue for the forthcoming year will be considered when framing the next budget.

Replying to another question from the same member the Home Member stated that the labour office has already obtained information with regard to most of the Employers' Associations and has taken steps to obtain systematically information with regard to Labourers' Association.

SUKKUR BARRAGE PROJECT.

A few more questions having been answered the President called upon Mr. Pahaljani to move his resolution on the Sukkur Barrage Project. Mr. Pahaljani in moving his resolution said that the Sukkur Barrage Scheme was a huge project in which it was intended to raise a dam to the river Indus and thence to start five big canals, three to the left and two to the right. The Scheme if carried out would provide the best irrigation to the province of Sind and Sind would then even surpass the province of the Punjab in the matter of exporting wheat. All the irrigation projects in Sind until now have been self-supporting and he assured the House that the present Scheme would be not only self-supporting but will be highly profitable both to the Government of India and to the Government of Bombay. Particularly continued the speaker the project would swell the imperial revenues as the railway revenue and income-tax were sure to increase after the completion of the Scheme. The total estimate of the expenditure on the Scheme was eighteen crores and the speaker asked the Imperial Government to help the Provincial Government financially. The speaker remarked that he was not going to beg of the Imperial Government but wanted to insist upon the latter for helping the Provincial Government. In the course of his speech Mr. Pahaljani explained to the House by quoting figures, that the Scheme would be fetching an additional revenue to the Government amounting to a crore and a quarter after a period of twenty-one years. Mr. Pahaljani further argued that there was a deficit of a crore and a half in the present provincial budget and hence this Presidency deserved an earlier help from the Imperial Government than the Presidency of Bengal which had a deficit of only a crore of rupees. The speaker further pointed out that other Schemes like the Nira Valley, etc., had already been taken up by the Provincial Government and there was no reason why this Project should not be taken up. He hoped that the House would unanimously support him in this respect.

The resolution moved by Mr. Pahaljani was as follows:—"This Council" recommends to the Government to convey to the Government of India this Council's strong opinion that whereas under the reforms the Central Government would share benefits of the Sukkar Barrage Scheme, a highly productive Scheme but cannot shrae the liabilities material assistance should be given by means of annual assignments from Central to Provincial revenues concerning to the whole of the interest up to the ninth year and an appreciable portion of the Scheme practicable and profitable both to Central and Provincial revenues."

The resolution was supported by the Zamindars from Sind.

Hon'ble Mr. Lawrence while supporting the resolution said that Government were fully aware of the productive project and were in general sympathy with the resolution. The Scheme was no doubt a profitable one to the Central Government in as much as it was going to pay it fifty lakhs of rupees annually. He could realize the position of the Government of India which in the event of helping this Scheme shall have also to help other Schemes brought forth by other Presidencies such as the Punjab and the United Provinces.

Honourable Mr. Hidayaitulla supporting the resolution said that the prosperity of Sind was the prosperity of this Presidency and hence the members from all parts of the provinces should support the resolution.

Dewan Bahadur Godbole, Messrs. Cowasji Jehangir, Pradhan and Clayton supported the resolution.

Mr. Trivedi sympathysing with the resolution asked for its postponement to the next session so that the House be enabled to give its intelligent support to this resolution.

Rao Sahib Harilal Desai also wanted the postponement of the resolution as the engineering experts had differed on certain points in connection with this Scheme.

Mr. Pahalajani in replying to the debate thought that there was no ground to postpone this resolution as it had been kept under consideration since the year 1913.

Sir Chimanlal was glad to find the House practically unanimous over this matter by carrying out this project. Continuing Sir Chimanlal said many uncultivated lands would be brought under cultivation. It would also effect an increase of two million tons in the quantity of foodgrains and that will be sure guarantee against all famines.

After a three hours debate the resolution was put to vote and was carried unanimously.

BHAGDARI AND NARWADARI TENURES.

Sir Ibrahim then announced that he withdrew the Bill No. 3 of 1921 which was a Bill to amend Bombay Act No. 5 of 1862 (an Act for the preservation of the Bhagdari and Narwadari tenures). In withdrawing it Sir Ibrahim stated that in view of the various representations received from the public concerned who do not want the Bill the Government had decided to withdraw the Bill.

CITY OF BOMBAY MUNICIPAL ACT.

Honourable Mr. Hidayatulla then introduced Bill No. 6 of 1921, a Bill further to amend the city of Bombay Municipal Act 1888. The report of the select committee on this Bill was placed before the Council. Rao Bahadur Chitale and Mr. Haji signed the select committee'e report subject to their minutes of dissent. Debate on the Bill was going on when the Council rose for the day.

COMMERCIALISED VICE.

DISCUSSION IN BOMBAY COUNCIL.

COMMITTEE TO BE APPOINTED.

Mr. Kanji Dwarkadas moved a resolution urging: "That in view of the vast and alarming extent of the evils of prostitution in Bombay and of the great menace and danger which the existence of a large number of brothel houses constitutes to public morals, health and decency, Government should at an early date introduce such legislation in this Council as would have to effect when passed of making brothel-keeping altogether illegal, and would make it punishable offence for persons to live on the earnings gained by the prostitution of woven and girls."

In the course of his speech, Mr. Kanji said: I shall merely refer to the existence of brothels and the way in which they are worked. Does the House realise how the recruits for these brothels are made, how the recruiting is going on, and how the inmates of the brothels are treated? I shall describe some of the conditions that I saw during my investigations. In one brothel, sir, which I visited, there were three beds in one room. The reply I received was that what the worst that could be imagined was true. Business was going on those three beds at one and the same time. Is the Council going to tolerate this state of affairs? I visited another brothel. I saw a litle boy of 10 years who was there. The moment I and the police officials went there, all the inmates of the brothel and the little boy came out. We began questioning the keeper of the brothel. But before she could give a reply. the little cunning boy began to give the replies. He knew everything, and he seemed to be proud that he knew everything. Can the condition of things be more serious than this?

Ob jections are raised that public opinion in this matter is not very well formed. Whose is the fault? It is the fault of the public itself, that keeps itself ignorant of the real conditions. But fortunately public opinionis now forming itself and it is at one with my resolution. Then there is another objection that if the Government accepts the resolution as it stands, powers of the Police would be increased and that there would be pilice corruption. There is sure to be some difficulty, but because there is goin to be some difficulty in the future we should refuse to take action is not a point which I am willing to concede.

What right have we to say that we are more respectable than the poor inmates of the brothels? They are no less respectable than we are. They have been there not because of their own free will, not because they want to enjoy the life there, but because they have been thrown into that life ever since their infancy. They have been there bought by people, or they have been seduced from the houses of their parents by people with evil designs. These people, this degraded class of people, use them for their own purposes, corrupt them, and when they get dissatisfied with them, they put them in the trade and make money frim the regradation of these women. The case of an independent prostitute is quite different. If she is not inclined to receive visitors, she can shut herself up in her room, and remain there as she likes. The case of a brothel women is different. She has to pay a certain amount of money to her keeper, and she is bound, ill or well, to receive visitors at least from 10 to 15 men and more per day, and there is no choice in the selection of men. The man may be full of disease, or a drunkard and in a most horrible condition and the poor girl has no choice if refusal. If she refuses, she will be taken to task by the man who is in possession of her physical body.

I have said that I will not say anything on the moral aspect. I may say something about the physical aspect. We know that disease is rampant in Bombay. I am told —I do not know if it is true. As many as 90 per cent of the mill-hand area is suffering from venereal diseases. If this disease is prevalent to that extent in the mill area, it may also be prevalent to a similar extent in the so-called respectable localities of Bombay. The annual report of the hospital to treat venereal diseases shows that the disease has spread too wide, and very few in Bombay know to what extent it has gone up. A greater responsibility lies on this Council. Are we not to protect the future generation that will now come up as free and responsible citizens of a great nation? Those citizens have to be protected. How can they be protected if the disease is allowed to go on undetected and untreated. For the past mistakes or negligence we are not responsible, and I do not want to blame either the Government or the people. Now is the time to take proper action, and it will not be difficult for Government to accept the resolution, and I hope I shall receive the support of the majority of this House.

Mr. Kanji then referred to the proposed Burma Legislation for the suppression of brothels and the profession of pimps and procurers.

At this stage, Mr. Hayward on behalf of Government, assured the Council that the Government had already decided on the appointment of a committee in connection with the whole matter. Mr. Kanji then withdrew his resolution.

MALABAR SPECIAL TRIBUNAL

TRIAL OF ALI MUSALIAR.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALICUT, Oct. 6.

The case against Ali Musaliar and 38 others charged, with waging war against the King-Emperor and under sections 121A and 30 I. P. C. was taken up by the Special Tribunal. The Crown Prosecutor in opening the case said that among other things the case for the Crown was that the accused with several others waged war against the King and in the course of which committed the murder of Private Williams of Second Dorsets at Tirurangadi Juma Mosque on 21st August last. Though the actual murder of Williams was the work of another Moplah, not before the Court, the accused, according to the prosecution were guilty of the offence by reason of section 149 I.P.C. The Crown charged the accused also with offences under Martial Law Ordinance II of 1921. He said for several months past Tirurangadi, the scene of offence, had become the hot-bed of sedition of a very violent type. The Moplahs of this and adjoining country formed themselves into secret associations of Khilafat and N. C. O. persuasions and meetings were held often, mostly under the presidency of the first accused, Ali Musaliar. The evidence proposed to be led in would show that the accused belonged to a family with fanatical traditions. He posed as a leader among the ignorant Moplahs and the opportunity which he enjoyed of teaching Koran and reciting it at religious ceremonies naturally invested him, in the eyes of the credulous and the ignorant, with inspiration. Many secret meetings were held and about Tirurangadi preaching at these meetings began to grow more and more violent and hatred against Government was cultivated with great assiduity by the 1st accused. Stories of the Amir of Afghanistan, assisted by Mr. Gandhi and the Ali Brothers, coming to invade India to convert her into a Muslim country were given currency to and Khilafat volunteers with uniforms swords and badges were entertained by the accused and were made to swear upon holy books that they would die for the cause of Khilafat. The volunteers and others went in a procession on the Ramzan Day and offered prayers to the so-called martyrs who had died in the previous Moplah outbreaks.

ALI MUSALIAR'S INFLUENCE.

About the beginning of July organisations were so complete in Ernad and portions of Wallavanad and Ponnani that Moplahs were prepared to rise in open rebellion at the shortest notice and on the slightest pretext. The accused, Ali Musaliar, weilded considerable influence also at Pookatur, 27 miles from Tirurangadi, having many discipiles there. The District Magistrate, having received credible information of the manufacture of war-knives on a large scale in and about Tirurangadi under the instigation of Ali Musaliar and also reports of deliberate incitement to violence and bloodshed in the name of Khilafat, proceeded with some of the principl officer of the District and Police and Military party to Tiruranga in the early hours of 20th August. Some arrests wre made in cours of which Kizakapalli was entered and Ali Musaliar's house searched. This was the signal for the open rebellion throughout to taluka of Ernad, Valluvanad and Ponani. At Tirurangad on 20th August, 3 European officers were butchered by the mob, 4 policemen killed, and 5 or 6 motor men were brutally assaulted and done to death. Cutting of commnications, arson, pluader and looting of public treasuries and destruction of Government buildings followed. Ali Musalier, the first accused proclaimed himself king under the title of Ali Rajah and roads to Tirurangadi were blocked under Ali Rajah's order. Forcible conversions were also made to Islam. On the 30th August the military surrounded the Jumma Mosque, where the Rajah and his lieutenanants had taken refuge and after a strong resistance the accused surrendered themselves at 2 p.m. on 31st August.

After the Crown Prosecutor had completed his address Captain Bullard (Second Dorsets) who accompanied the column to Tirurangadi on 29th August to meet the rebels and Mr. Amu, D.S.P., were examined as prisecution witnesses and their evidence supported the case as presented by the Crown Prosecutor.

BEHAR KHILAFAT CONFERENCE

HINDUS VILING WITH MUSLIMS FOR ANGORA RELIEF

CONFIDENCE OF PEOPLE ON MAHATMAJI

(From a Correspondent.)

PATNA, Oct. 6.

The first sessions of the Behar Khilafat Conferenc held most successfully at Arrah on Tusday last. Prominent men of the whole province were present in the Conference.

Chandhri Karamat Hosain, Chairman Reception Committee welcomed the delegates. He then dwelt elaborately on the subject of the Khilafat, the Hindu-Muslim unity and appealed to the Mussalmans to devote themselves to the great work of national and religious progress and freedom. He strongly depreciated the arrest of the Ali Brothers, Jagat Guru Shankaracharya and other religious divines and made a moving appeal for funds for the Kemalists who were fighting not merely for the integrity of the Khilafat but for the sacred cause of liberty.

Maulana Abul Kalam Azad being unavoidably unable to come, Maulana Mohiuddin Saheb was unanimously voted to the chair. The Maulana's extempore address was a theological exposition of the Khilafat problem and the vandalism which was being perpetrated at its expense. He referred to the prescription of the "Fatwa" issued by Jamiat-ul-Ulema and explained how the Karachi Resolution for which several of their leaders and divines stood charged with various offences was strictly in accordance with the Quranic injunctions. He exhorted the audience to work with redoubled energy and zeal and to spare no pain in the work of collecting money for Angora Relief Fund.

Swami Visawanand who followed emphasised the absolute necessity of Hindu-Muslim unity as a "sine qua non" for the success of their struggle in India.

During the second setting of the Conference Babu Dip Narain and Swami Viswanand made moving appeals for Angora Relief Fund and the response was remarkably satisfactory demonstrating the strength of feeling prevailing even among the Hindus on the question of the Khilafat. About fifty thousand was promised on the spot. Baba Narsingh Das Sanyasi laying down his clothes with the declaration that he would not put them on till he had collected ten thousand for the Fund. The effect was electric. A poor Doosadh promised to pay Rs. 20 whereupon Swami Vishanand the celebrated Gooro of the coal fields clapped to his breast some groundnuts contributed by some vendor which was sold for Rs. 30. A number of Sanyasis and Pandits took vows pledging themselves to collect fund. Srijut Khalil Das and Babu Tarni Prasad Choudhari of Purnea and others undertook to remain bareheaded and barefooted till they had carried out their pledge to collect the amounts promised by them. Ladies freely gave away their ornaments. One lady parting with the only bracelet she possessed. Maulvi Ibrahim, Secretary, Khilafat Committee of Darbhanga resolved never to go home till he had collected the sum promised by him.

Altogether the Conference was a remarkable success. The Karachi Resolution No. 7 was passed standing amidst tumultous uproar.

Other resolutions passed, one requesting the Central Khilafat Committee to allow Civil Disobedience, others relating to Angora Relief, Moplah Outbreak and formation of an enquiry committee, Khaddar campaign, Fatwa of Jamiat-ul-Ulema.

A resolution recording confidence of Behar Muslims in Mahatma Gandhi, laying down, though the Ali Brothers were arrested, their faith in him unimpaired and had no doubt along with Swaraj Mahatmajee would continue similar attention to the Khilafat.

Unbounded enthusiasm prevailed all through the proceedings. There was no dejection whatsoever on the arrest of leaders but every one resolved to work for the Khilafat with much more energy than before. The arrests of leaders was generally regarded as blessings from God.

PROGRESS OF SWADESHI IN GAUHATI.

DISCOMFITURE OF AUTHORITIES.

TWO YOUNG LAD'S PATRIOTIC SPIRIT.

(From a Correspondent.)

GAUHATI, Oct. 5.

Peaceful picketing of foreign cloth was successfully carried on for the last 15 days at Gauhati. The authorities being unable to brook the success of the pickets have taken recourse to the all embracing section of the Cr. P. C. and prohibited picketing within the limits of Gauhati Municipality. Since Civil Disobedience has not yet been enjoined by the Congress the pickets were recalled immediately and volunteers were sent in several batches round the town for hawking Khaddar and Swadeshi Piecegoods. Srijuts Phukan and Bardoloi with several other leading non-co-operators worked as hawkers. While hawking about they asked the people to avoid Bideshi cloths. The enthusiasm of the people was so great that many merchants and other persons joined them and some of the passers-by even made a bonre of foreign clothes. This has very effectively stopped the sale of foreign cloth. A large number of police constables was posted round the bazars while several officers, including the Superintendent of Police himself, were seen patrolling in the streets. Peaceful picketing is going on in the suburbs and other places throughout the district.

The Rangiya police in their enthusiasm sent up on the 3rd instant two boys aged 12 and 14 respectively for picketing at the Rangiya bazar. They were received at the station by a large number of people who peacefully followed them to the hazat. The next morning the S P. who is an Indian repeatedly induced them to go on bail on personal recognisance but they emphatically declined even to go on personal recognisance. Though surrounded by the police they were so cheerful that they most humbly requested the S. P. who was then smoking cigarettes to give it up. The S. P. however discharged them probably for want of evidence.

In the evening a largely attended public meeting was held under the presidency of Srijut Debendranath Uzir a non-co-operating pleader. He made a short but feeling speech urging people to be absolutely non-violent. It was followed by Srijut Bardaloi who asked the people to be firm in their determination to boycott foreign cloth and to spin their own yarns. The two boys who were arrested at Rangiya rose up and appealed to the audience to give up every bit of foreign cloth they were in possession with the result that a pile of foreign cloth was collected and burnt on the spot.

VIGILANCE COMMITTEE REPORT.

Mr. V. A. Desai, Chairman, Vigilance Committee writes as follows on the 7th instant.

Yesterday, I had to report against Mr. Carter's arbitrary ways. To-day, I arrived at the shop —No. 17,—at the Junction of the Princes Street and Girgaum Main Road. The Liqor shop, like so many others, keeps two gates open, one in the Lohar Street and the other on the Girgaum Main Road. I arrived at the place at 8-30 p.m., and was informed that two Police Sergeants removed our pickets from the gate on the Girgaum Main Road. The Sergeants, who were there for over an hour, with six police constables, would not permit picketing at the door. When I arrived on the scene there were only three constables.

The public has a right to know, what right the Sergeants had to favour this shop—and let liquor illicit traffic go on and thus favour this particular shop. The attention of the Sergeants was drawn to the fact that the communicating door was wide open.

The Exchange Bank telegraphic transfer, one shilling five and seven thirty-two pence and demand bills, one shilling five and one-fourth pence. The Imperial Bank of India Calcutta rate for demand loans remains unchangd, being 5 per cent.

THE KARACHI TRIAL.

MAULANA MAHOMED ALI'S STATEMENT.

CONCLUDING PORTION.

The "New Times" of Karachi publishes the following in the concluding portion of the statement of Moulana Mahomed Ali submitted to the Court on Saturday. This portion was given in writing to the Court while the first portion was given orally:—

But in June 1920, the Central Khilafat Committee in accordance with the Laws of Islam and in consultation with some leading compatriots of ours of other faiths decided upon a course of action which gave the Musalmans hope of early emancipation without having to wage war against Government or to migrate to another country. They resolved that they would, to begin with, cease to cooperate with Government and in this way, while incidentally helping to paralyse the Administration, they would no longer be a party to such hostile action as Government still continued to take against the Khilafat and Islam. This plan of Non-Cooperation was based on the well-known Islamic doctrine of "Tark Mawalat" for which there is ample authority in the Holy Quran itself not to mention the numerous authentic traditions of the Prophet on the subject. Only a few passages from the the Holy Quran are here cited:—

"O Ye Faithful, if ye go forth to fight in defence of My religion and out of a desire to please Me, take not My foe and your foe for your friends, rushing into friendly relations with them since they deny or reject that which hath come unto you, of truth down for the Apostle and yourselves because ye believe in God your Lord; ye privately show friendship unto them; verily I will know that which ye conceal and that which ye discover; and whoever of you doth this, hath already gone astray from the even path. If they get the better of you, they will be toys unto you and they will stretch forth their hands and their tongues against you with evil, and they ardently desire that ye should become once more unbelievers. Neither your kindred nor your children will avail you at all on the Day of Resurrection; God will separate you from one another and God doth behold what ye do. Ye have an excellent exemplar in Abraham and those who are with him when they said unto their people, verily we are clear of you and of those that ye serve besides God; we have renounced you; an enmity and hatred is begun between us and you for ever until ye believe in God alone except Abraham's saying unto his father, verily I will beg pardon for thee; but I cannot obtain aught of God in thy behalf:—O Lord, in Thee do we trust and unto Thee do we turn and unto Thee is the eventual coming. O, Lord, suffer us not to be put to trial by the Unbelievers (i.e., by the terror of their persecutions) and forgive us, O. Lord, for Thou art the Mighty, the wise. Verily we have in them an excellent example unto him who hopeth in God and the Last Day; and who so turneth back, verily God is Self-Sufficient and Praiseworthy. Peradventure God will establish friendship between yourselves and such of them as ye now hold for enemies; for God is Potent and God is inclined to forgive and be merciful. As to those who have not warred against you on account of your religion nor drove you forth out of your homelands, God forbiddeth you not to deal kindly with them and behave justly towards them, for God loveth those who act justly. But as to those who have warred against you on account of your religion and have dispossessed you of your homelands and have assisted those who drove you forth, God forbiddeth you to enter into friendship with them, and whosoever of you entereth into friendship with them those are wrong doers. Oye faithful enter not into amity with the people against whom God is wroth; they despair of the life to come even as the Infidels despair of the ressurrection of the dwellers in graces." (Sura-i-Mumtahina. "She who is Tried" chapter 60th).

These verses, it may be here mentioned, were revealed when, on the eve of the conquest of Mecca a companion of the Prophet, Hatebibn-i-abi Baltaa, had by letter which was intercepted, sought to advise the Meccan infidels to be on their guard merely because he wished thereby to induce them to treat his famiy, which was still at Mecca with kindness. The verses laying down a very different course of conduct with regard to the relation of Musalman with a different classes of non-Muslims to those warring against Islam are said to have been revealed with reference to the action of Hazrat Asma the daughter of Hazrat Abubakar and sister of the Prophet's wife Hazrat Ayesha, who had gone so far in her renunciation of her own mother who was still an Unbeliever that she had not only refused to accept the presents which her mother had brought to her, but had even denied her admittance. Both these incidents indicate the rigidly fixed limits of a Muslims's relations with non-Muslims, ditingushing clearly between such non-Muslims as war against them on account of their religion and dispossess them of their homelands, and such others as do not. Since the British Government so obviously falls in the first category, no cooperation or friendly relations with it are possible for a Musalman

A few more passages from the Holy Quran will be cited here on the subject just to indicate that there is no lack of them. In Sura-i-Mujadillah. ("She who Disputed" the 58th Chapter) the following verses occur:—

"Hast thou not observed those who have taken for their friends a people against whom God is incensed? They are neither of you nor of them and they swear to a lie knowingly. God hath prepared for them a grievous torment for verily evil is what they do. They have taken their oaths for a cover and under cover of their perjuries have turned people aside from the path of God wherefore a shameful torment awaiteth them. Neither their wealth nor their children shall avail them aught against God; these shall be companions of the fire i.e dwellers in Hell; they shall abide therein for ever. On the day when God shall raise them all they will swear unto him" then as they swear unto you now, deeming that it will avail them. Are they not—yet they are—the liers? Satan hath gained mastery over them, and hath caused them to forget the remembrance of God; these are Satan's Party; What! shall not verily the Party of Satan be doomed to perdition. Verily those who oppose God and His Apostle shall be placed among the most vile. God has written this decree; verily I will prevail I and My Apostle; verily God is strong and mighty. Thou shalt not find a people who believe in God and the Last day to hear affection towards him who opposeth God and His Apostle even although they will be their fathers or their brethren or their nearest kin. On the hearts of these hath God graven the Faith, and with his own spirit hath he strengthened them; and He will leave them into the gardens beneath whose shades the rivers flow, to remain therein for ever: God is well pleased with them and they are well pleased with Him; these are God's party and is not, of a truth, the Party of God be destined to prosper." Surely, in view of these passages there can be no ambiguity about a true Muslim's co-operation or non-co-operation with those who are ranged in opposition to God and His Apostle. Again, in Surai-al-i-Imran (the third Chapter of the Holy Knoran entitled "The Family of Amran") the following passages occur:—

Say: O God Possessor of all dominion Thou givest dominion to whom Thou wilt and from whom Thou wilt Thou takest it away; Thou exaltest whom Thou wilt, and whom Thou wilt Thou dost abuse; in Thy hand is good: verily Thou art over all things potent. Thou causest the night to pass into the day, and Thou causest the day to pass into the night. Thou bringest the living out of the dead and Thou bringest the dead out of the living, and givest sustenance to whom Thou wilt without measure Let not the Faithful take Infidels for their friends rather than the Faithful who shall do this hath naught to [illegible] from God unless indeed [illegible] a dread of men; but God warneth you to beware of Himself for unto God is the eventual coming. Say; whether you hide what is in your breasts or whether ye declare God knoweth it; He knoweth whatever in Heaven and whatever is on earth For God is over all things potent. On the day when every soul shall find present unto it the good that it hath wrought and also the evil that it hath wrought, it shall long that between itself and that evil were wide space; and God warneth you to beware of himself, for God is Gracious unto His servitors. Say; if ye love God, then follow me! God will love you and forgive you your sins for God is Forgiving and Merciful. Say: obey God and the Apostle; but if ye go back then verily God loveth not the Infide's....Say, O people of the Book! why do ye reject or deny the signs of God; and God is witness of that which ye work. Say, O people of the Book, why do ye hinder him who believes from the path of God; ye seek to make it crooked and yet ye are its witnesses; but God is not unmindful of what ye do. O ye Faithful if ye obey any party from among those who have received the Scripture they will turn you back. Infidels after you very faith and how can ye become Infidels when the signs of God are recited unto you and among you is His Apostle? But who-so-ever holdteh fast by God is already guided to a straight path. O ye Faithful, fear God as He deserveth to be feared and die not till ye also be true believers. And hold ye fast by the cord of God, all of you, and break not loose from it, and remember the favour of God towards you, how that when ye were enemies. He cast affection of each other into your hearts and ye becaume brothern by His favour; and ye were on the brink of a pit of fire and He delivered you thence; thus doth God mawke clear unto you His signs that ye may be guided. Let there be a people among you who invite to the Good and enjoin the Just and forbid the wrong; and these are they who are destined to prosper. And be not like unto those who are divided and fallen into variance after manifest proofs have been brought unto them; these! a terrible torment doth await them. On the Day when faces shall turn white and faces shall turn black; and as to those whose faces have turned black God will say; what, after your belief have ye become Infidels? Taste them the torment for that ye have been unbelievers. And as to those whose faces shall have become white they shall be within the mercy of God; there in shall they abide for ever. These are the signs of God; we recite them unto thee in truth; and God willeth not injustice to the worlds. And to God belongeth whatever is in heaven and whatever is on earth and unto God shall all affairs return

O ye faithful contract not intimacies among others than yourselves; they spare you not the infliction of harm; they long for your ruin; hatred hath already appeared from out of their mouths, but what their breasts conceal is still more inveterate: we have already made plain unto you the tokens thereof, if ye will but comprehend. Behold, ye love them but they love you not, ye believe in the Book, the whole of it; but when they meet you they say; we believe: and when they are apart, they bite their fingers' ends at you in wrath; say, die in your wrath: God truly knoweth the very recesses of your breasts. If good befalleth you it grieveth them and if evil afflicateth you they rejoice in it; but if ye be steadfast and fear God their strategem shall no way harm you; for God encompasseth whatsoever they work."

These passages refer directly to the People of the Book such as Jews and Christians, and they lack neither in clearness, nor in emphasis, nor indeed in the irrefutable logic of the arguments therein employed. I will cite here only one more passage wherein Jews and Christians are more specifically mentioned:—

"O ye Faithful take not the Jews or the Christians for your friends; they are friends the one to the other; but who so among you taketh them for his friends, he surely is one of them; verily God guideth not the unjust people. So shall thou see the diseased at heart speed away unto them and say; we fear lest we get involved in some change of fortune; but happily God will bring pily God will bring about the victory or some event of His own ordering; then soon shall they repent them of the imaginings they secretly harboured in their minds. Then will the Faithful say; what are these they who swore by their most fervent oaths that they were surely with you; vain their works; and themselves shall come to ruin. O ye Faithful should any of you desert His religion, God will then raise up a people whom he will love and who will love him; lowly towards the faithful haughty towards the Infidels; for the cause of God will they strive or contend (i. e., wage Jchad) and not fear the censure of any censurer; this is the grace of God; on whom He will bestoweth; and God is Vast Omniscient. Verily your friend is God and so is His Apostle and the Faithful who keep up prayer and pay the alms of obligation and who bow down before God. And who so take God and His Apostle and the Faithful for friends, they truly are the Party of God and the Party of God are destined to dominate. O Ye Faithful take not such of those who have received the scriptures before you as scoff and jest at your religion or the Infidels for your friends but fear God if ye be Faithful. Nor those who when ye call to prayer make it an object of raillery and derision; this they do because they are a people who understand not. Say; O People of the Book do ye not disavow us because we believe in God and in what hath been sent down to us and in what hath been sent down aforetime and the greater part of you are transgressers thereof. Say; shall I denounce unto you a worse than this deserving of the retribution which awaiteth them with God; they whom God hoth cursed and with whom he hath been wroth—some of them hath he changed into apes and swine and they who serve Taghout (the Devi) they are in the worst plight and have gone far astray from the right path. When they presented themselves to you they said; we believe; but Infidels they came in unto you and Infidels they went forth; God knoweth best what they conceal. Many of them [illegible] to sin ond transgression and [illegible] eat what is unlawfully acquired; shame on them for what they have wrought. Had not their Rabbis and doctors of law forbidden their uttering what is sinful and their eating of what that which is unlawfully acquired; evil indeed is that which they have wrought." (Surai-Moidah, the 5th Chapter of the Holy Quaran entitled "The Table" or "The Food.")

There are besides these many more verses in the Holy Quran itself, not to mention the traditions of the Prophet, everyone of which forbids a Mussalman on pain of the wrath of God and the most grievous torments of Hell, to maintain relations of amity and friendship, much less rendering assistance to, or co-operating with such Non-Moslems as are at war with Moslems, and oppose God and His Apostle, which is precisely the case here. Indeed, so rigid is the Law of Islam in this behalf that Mussalmans are forbidden even to assist each other in aught that is unrighteous. Says the Holy Quran: "Assist each other in righteousness and God-fearing, but assist each other in sin and transgression."

These being the limits of co-operation even among Mussalmans themselves, how is it to be supposed that co-operation will be permissible with Infidels waging war against Islam and the defenders of Islam, as Government is doing to this day, and co-operation to in waging that very war itself? Five hundred of the most distinguished Ulama of Islam in India issued a juridical pronouncement against it months before the Karachi Khilafat Conference was even thought of by anybody in India. But all of a sudden, when the shameless effort of Government to twist our statement regarding non violence into a recantation and abject surrender for fear of prosecution failed so ignominously through the persistence of Mahatma Gandhi, the incidental mention of the army in the Angora Resolution of the Karachi Conference was pounced upon by Government as subsequent to the Gandhi Reading interviews, and lo and behold! the Fatwa of the Ulma was declared forfeited to His Majesty after perhaps half a million copies thereof had been distributed all over India by various provincial and local bodies in addition to the central orgaisations themselves. Not by such tricks. I submit can three hundred and twenty millions be ruled in the twentieth century.

And on what is the Fatwa of these five hundred divines based? On the clearest and most emphatic comands contained in the Holy Quran which prescribes the severest sanctions, and on the repeated testimony of the Prophet's most authentic Traditions. I do not think, I can do better than cite both without argument or comment of my own, for none is really necessary.

Here are some six some passages from the Holy Quran:—

1. "It is not for one of the Faithful kill another but by mischance"—and thereafter follow the severe penances prescribed even in cases of such mischance. (Sura-i-Nisa, Chapter IV.)

2. "But whoever shall kill one of the Faithful wilfully, his recompense shall be Hell; for ever shall he abide therein; God shall be wroth with him, and shall curse him, and had prepared for him a great torment." (Idem.)

3. "O ye Faithful! devour not each other's substance falsely except that it be trading among you by your own consent; and kill not your own people, verily God is unto you Merciful. And whoever shall do this of malice and wrongfully, we will soon cast him in fire, for unto God is this easy. If ye shun the great things that are forbidden we will blot out your faults, and we will lead you into Paradise with honourable entry. (Idem.)

4. After recounting the story of the first killing, the murder of a brother by a brother, the crime of Cain, in spite of Abel's declaration of his own doctrine of non-violence, the doctrine of every Mosle in like circumstances. "Even if thou stretch forth thy hand against me to slay me, I will not stretch forth my hand against thee to slay thee; verily I fear God, the Lord of the Worlds" the Quran says; "For this have we ordained unto the children of Israel that whoever slayeth another soul unless it be for manslaughter or for spreading disorder in the land, it is thought he slew all mankind; and whoever saveth a life, it is as though he saved all mankind alive. (Sura-i-Maidah chater V.)

(5) And (the servitors of the Beneficent Godare) they who call on no other gods with God, nor slay the soul God hath forbidden to be slain, except for just cause, and commit not fornication, for he who doth in shall meet the reward of sin (that part of Hell which is known as Asam). Doubled unto him shall be the torment, of the Day of Resurrection, and therein shall he remain, disgraced, for ever." (Sura-i-Furqan Chapter XXV.)

"And slay not a soul whom God hath forbidden you to slay except for just cause." (Sura-i-Bani-Israel, Chap. XVII.)

If we turn to the Traditions of the Prophet, they are so numerous, and each and every one of them so clear and emphatic that it becomes exceedingly difficult which to choose and whhich to leave out. Nevertheless I shall attempt a selection, and the following should suffice, the first cited here being the Tradition that explains what alone is "just cause" for which a Moslem is permitted to slay another:—

(1) "Shedding a Moslem's blood is not permissible except in three cases, when life is taken for a life (i.e., as punishment for adultery, and as punishment for a renegade deserting his side."

(2) "A Moslem is he from whose tongue and hand a Moslem remained immune." (Bukhari B: Moslem-M; Abu Faud-A D: Tirmizi T &c.)

(3) "To abuse a Moslem is wrong-doing; and to war against him is Infidelity ('kufr')." B.M.T.A.D. Nasai-N. Ibn-i-Maja IM.)

(4) "He who bore arms against us is not from among us," i.e. is not a Moslem any longer. (B.M.T.A.D.)

(5) "Even if the inhabitants of all the heavens and all the earths were accessories in the slaying of a single Moslem, God will certainly push them all into the Fire." (T. Behaqu-BQ-Tibrani-TB.)

(6) "Whoso assisted in the slaying of a Moslem even with half a word, shalt meet God with this written between his eyes: "Despairer from God's Mercy (i.e. he shall receive no portion of God's abounding Mercy).' "(IM: BQ: Ashahani,)

(7) "The murder of a Moslem is greater in the sight of God than the disappearance (i.e. destruction) of the world. (N:BQ.)

(8) "The disappearance of the world (i.e. destruction) is a lighter matter to God than the murder of a Moslem." (M.N.T.M)

(9) God may, it is to be hoped, forgive every sin, but not the man wro died while still an Infidel, nor the man who killed a Moslim wilfully." (AD. Ibn-i-Haban. N. Hakim.)

(10) "Whoso killed a Moslem without discriminating between killing for just cause or without it, God will accept from him neither his discharge of obligatory duties nor optional devotions." (A.D.)

(11) "Every Moslem's life, and honour and property are haram (unlawful, forbidden) for every other Moslem." (M).

(12) "There are seven doors to Hell, one of which is for those who drew sword on my follows." (T).

(13) "The major sins are associating another with God, disobedience towards parents, slaying of a soul that is forbidden and purjury." (B. M. &c.)

(14) "Let him who can see to it that there is not between him and Heaven even a handful of a Moslem's blood, even as much as a fowl's which is killed for food, for whensoever such a man will present himself before any of the gates of Paradise, God will interpose Himself between Him and Paradise." (T. B. B. Q.)

(15) "Who so went forth drawing his sword against my followers, striking alike the good and the bad, sparing neither the Faithful nor those in alliance with them literally, nor fulfilling the pledge in the case of those to whom pledge was given) is not of me nor am I of him. (i.e. he is not a Moslem and the Prophet too has no concern with him.)" (M.)

(16) "When two Mussalmans quarrel with each other and use their swords both the slayer and the slain shall be cast into the Fire." When the people said, "O, Prohet of God, the reason for the slayer being cast into the Fire is plain but why the slain as well"? The Prophet replied, "Because he had intended to kill his companion." (B. M. T. &c.)

I will cite two more Traditions which I have purposely left out hitherto because they need special emphasis. Ibni-Maja gives the following Hadees related by that Prince of Traditionists, Barat Abdullah son of Hazrat Omar:—

"I saw the Phophet of God circumambulating the Kaba saying the while: 'How good art thou (O Kaba), and how good is thy air! How great art thou, and how great is thy sanctity! But by the Lord in whose hand is the soul of Mohamed: certainly the sanctity of one of the Faithful in the sight of God is greater than thine own, the sanctity of his goods and of his blood.!"

And this Infidel Government prosecutes six Mussalmans and a Hindu of recognised sanctity for calling upon Mussalmans to respect the sanctity of Moslem life and Moslem property that is greater than the sanctity of the Holy of Holies after having outraged the sanctity of both!

The last Tradition that I am going to cite here is the last word of the last of the Prophets on this subject. Only three months before he passed away, closing for ever the chapter of divine revealation, he went on his last pilgrimage to Mecca, where about 175,000 people accompanied him. Addressing these assembled multitudes on the day of the Haj, he asked them what day it was, and the people understanding that he could not be unaware of that, and was asking it only to ehmpasise the importance of the occasion answered, "God and the Prophet of God know best." Then he asked what month it was, and they answered in like manner. Finally he asked them what city it was, and they answered as before. Then said the Prophet, and it is related in all the collections of his Traditions and in books of history and in his biographies. "Beware, in truth your blood and your

PIECE-GOOD TRADE.

Oct. 7.

A slightly better feeling has been noticeable in the Cloth Market during the past week. Values of some cloths have shown some improvement after the heavy decline. The lower rates have attracted a few retail buyers and small transactions have resulted. Some lots have changed hands amongst the merchants in the bazaar and the activity of brokers has again been visible. If the demand improves, values will no doubt take an upward course. The approach of the Dewali may induce buyers to pick up some styles according to their requirements. Values of cloths are said to have improved to some extent in Karachi, but in Calcutta the merchants are heavy losers, as forward purchases there, are usually made at rupee rates, and as the exchange has gone up they are at a disadvantage compared with merchants of the sister markets, who have profited by the rise in the exchange, and can afford to sell at lower rates. In Bengal there is a serious financial crisis, and no relief seems to be in sight for the present. The Durga-puja sales have not been worth mentioning so far. Several merchants in Karachi are reported to have signed an agreement to stop dealing in foreign piece-goods and yarn. At the meeting of the Delhi Hindustani Mercantile Association held on 27th September last it was resolved that the members can only purchase and sell amongst themselves those foreign piece-goods which they had bought up-to-date and in future neither will they book new orders nor will they buy any ready stocks of foreign piece-goods till 31st March, 1922.

On the other hand the Manchester Market has been firm and quotations have been put up by makers in consequence of the rise in the raw material. Bid-American Spot Cotton is fluctuating between 15 and 16d. per lb. and Egyptian Spot between 30 and 31d. The U. S. Department of Agriculture in its report on the cotton crop states that the average condition of the crop is only 42.2 per cent. and that the estimated crop is 65.37,000 bales. The Bureau report states that the growing season has been the most disastrous on record, the crop showing a loss of 16,000,000 bales during August and September owing to a plague of boll-weevils. The partial failure of the Egyptian crop has also been reported, the condition of the crop being from 72 to 79 per cent. compared with the normal. The failure is due to late sowing, careless cultivation owing to low prices, unseasonable weather and the ravages of bollworm.

In the local market some fair improvement has resulted in 26, 31 and 36 inches Nainsooks and styles that were selling at Rs. 4-11-0 average have now fetched Rs. 5-20 per piece. Wilder Nainsooks have been scarce. 58 inches by 20 yards Red End Mulls have improved by eight annas per piece after the recent heavy decline. 39 inches by 20 yards Gold End Mulls have declined by four annas per piece owing to absence of demand. White Shirtings have remained steady. There has hardly been any change in the position of Grey goods of Manchester make. Local mill cloths have remained firm and steady with a fair demand.

HOME MARKETS.

Oct. 7.

There is nothing fresh to report from Home markets. The only advice that we can give is to buy on all breaks and to remain quiet and have patience as we expect much better prices later on. The following are the changes in the Home markets as quoted and compared with last week.: —

Week commencing from 28th September to 6th October, 1921.

Liverpool Spot 1921	15.55	14.70	—85
New York Spot 1921	21.55	20.60	—95
Liverpool Oct. 1921	14.77	13.85	—92
Liverpool Jan. 1922	14.28	13.33	—95
New York Jan. 1922	20.78	19.98	—80
New York March 1922	20.35	19.75	—60

LOCAL MARKET.

Oct. 7.

Fully Good Broach April-May 1922 opened in the Bazar at Rs. 573 on the 30th September last and continued advancing to Rs. 627 on the 3rd October last, again declined to Rs. 551 on the 6th October and closed at Rs. 566 the same evening at Colaba.

Fine Oomra for December-January 1922 opened in the Bazar at Rs. 509 on the 30th September last, advanced to Rs. 552 on the 3rd October, and again dropped to Rs. 461 on the 6th October and closed at Rs. 484 the same evening at Colaba.

We on our part once more strongly advise our constituents to buy in the Home markets and sell here, as the local rates are much hiher compared with the rates on the other side. We say most confidently that this straddle business will prove fruitful in the long run both ways.

READY MARKET.

Oct. 7.

Our market for ready cotton remained steady during the week under review with a good undertone. There was a fair demand from Japan Shippers and Local Millwalas. About 15,000 bales are reported to have changed hands during the week. We would advise our friends to sell out their stock of ready cotton at current prices, as old cotton will be neglected when new crop cotton will be marketed.

The market had no important fluctuations during the week. Directs had some fair demand. Alizarine 20 per cent. had some Directs had some business to report at the ruling market rate. Benzo-Purpurine and Delta Purpurine had no good demand. Fast Red Madrasi had changed hands at Rs. 10-11 per lb. Congo-Red had no healthy demand excepting some from Madras. MILL STORES, MARKET.

Oct. 7.

As reported in our previous columns, the market continued dull without lively and important changes. The Home-offers are comparatively easy and are getting easier daily. Healds are quoted at Rs. 3-4 per 800 eyes retail, whereas, large lots are sold at Rs. 3. Home quotation remained steady at 42d. C. I. F. Bombay. Lambeth and Oldham ropes and Bandings are very dull without demand, the prices too have been easy, and several lots are offered in the market. Fillets are rather scarce, and the rate for Cylinder and Doffer pair of 90 and 100 counts are varying between Rs. 1-6 and Rs. 1-10 per foot.

Among wooden sundries, English shuttles had fair demand, and the price for 13½ ins. —2 eyed shuttle kept varying between Rs. 25 and Rs. 35 per doz. Japanese are very cheap in comparison, and are easily available at Rs. 8 to Rs. 10. Japanese Slubbings Bobbins had rather good demand last month and the price kept steady at Rs. 45. Rowings are quoted at Rs. 37 but, there is no activity. Conical Pirns, Weft pirns and Universal pirns, are practically speaking silent.

The leather goods have nothing important except that Pickers had an up-country demand Broomley are quoted at Rs. 110. Dig-Dag also kept in fair demand. Picking Bands are quiet, Brookshak quality being quoted at Rs. 2-12 per lb.

The quotations are as under:—

CHEMICALS.

Oct. 7.

Sodium Sulphide was quiet, U. A. quality being offered at Rs. 23, whereas Japanese changed hands at Rs. 22. Zinc Chloride had little demand. Magnesium chloride witnessed good enquiry in the current week, which has stabilised its value at Rs. 8-8 per cwt. for German stuff. Bleaching Powder has nothing of importance—the market ruling steady. Bichromate of Soda continued at the same rate after it witnessed a heavy drop in the rates. Aniline salt, too, is dull in demand, and the bazar rate is ruling at 14 annas per lb. for German white stuff. Antimony salt has on the whole poor inquiry. Brown sugar of lead German fetches good price, still, there is no lively inquiry. English Brown sugar is quoted at Rs. 37 and thereabouts.

The market in general has undergone heavy decline, especially due to the fact that large German consignments arrived in the harbour. The keen competition which Germany has initiated in the chemicals market after the war days, has brought down the prices to their present level. In several chemicals, almost the rock-bottoms prices.

Quotations:—

Sodium Sulphide, Rs. 22 Jap.

THE KARACHI TRIAL.

goods and your honour are haram (religiously forbidden) unto you like the hurmat (the present substantive corresponding to the adjective haram) of this day, in this city, and in this month. Beware, turn ye not into Infidels after me, cutting off the necks of each other." It is to this Infidelity that Government still continues to invite Moslem soldiers, and when we remind them of this solemn exhortation of the Prophet on so solemn an occasion, a Government which desires us to disregard even the Prop'et's dying injunction regarding the elimination of all non-Moslem control from the Jaziratul-Arab, prosecutes us, in spite of all the Proclamations of all British sovereigns who have solemnly disclaimed alike the right and the desire of imposing their own convictions on us.

I will only mention one fact which should bring the law of Islam home to all. The Sepoy's Mutiny after which the Queen' Proclamation was issued had orginated with greased cadtidges in which cows' and swine's grease was believed to be mixed. But Islamic law according to the best authorities which I can cite not only permits a Moslem to take Swine's flesh if he is in case of refusal threatened with death, but lays it down that he would die sinner if he refused it; but if he is threatened with death unless he slay another Moslem he must refuse.—He may in like circumstances even recaut Islam, if he continues to be believer at heart; but he must not slay a Moslem. And yet a Government which is so tender as to ask soldiers before enlistment whether they object to vacination or even re-vaccination, would compel a Moslem to do something worse than apostasise or eat pork. If there is any value in the boast of toleration and in the Proclamations of three sovereigns then we have performed a religious and legal duty in calling upon Moslem soldiers in these circumstances to withdraw from the army and are neither sinners nor criminals.

Bureaucratic Mistake.

The "Servant."—The Viceroy evidently holds that religious duties cease to have any binding force if they can be included in the category of what Simla calls "extreme political opinions;" he ignores the fact that the recent policy of his Government has been a direct challenge to the religious convictions of the people of Inda. Pamphlets containing extracts from the Quran have been proscribed; a Fatwa of five hundred Ulemas of India has also met the same fate; and every day we hear of people being prosecuted and punished for defining the religious duty of the Muslims at the present juncture. We do not know what the Viceroy's ideas on religious intolerance are, but it is evident that feeling in the country has been deeply excited over the situation that has now arisen. If the law of the land is to be pitted against the dictates of religion, resentment on an unprecedented scale is bound to ensue, and His Excellency will find that, far from creating that peaceful atmosphere for which he says he is striving, he will only aggravate the difficulties which at present confront himself and his colleagues. The religious issue is the predominant one of the day, as a result of the acton of the bureaucracy; and it is clear that its settlement will also involve the practical settlement of the political issue.

October 1st!

The "New Times,"—October 1st! And some people ask:—Where is swaraj? Whose fault, we ask, is it that swaraj is not yet achieved? A doctor can prescribe; it is for the patient to act according to the prescription. Mahatma Gandhi himself has been touring all over India to tell the people what they must do to achieve swaraj. Replace foreign cloth by swadeshi, —has been his insistent advice. But there is not enough of khadar—is the objection raised. Don't wear so many clothes, he says; be satisfied for the time being with a lagoti and (chadar). And he practises what he preaches. At Madura the other day the Mahatma arrived at the Gandhi square to receive an Address; and how was he clothed? He was clad, says a correspondent, in one single piece of khader round the loins over the knees! Henceforth, he said, he was going to wear only that much clothing! Mahtma Gandhi realises that without swadeshi there can be no swaraj. In his message to the country, Mahatmaji says:—"For one month I advise complete suspension of every other item but swadeshi. Will Sind respond to the Message and concentrate upon the swadeshi campaign to make it a success before October is out?

At Last!

The "Leader."—We cannot but express our warm appreciation at the decision announced by the Government of India that tenders will be invited in India for all the railway locomotive engines and locomotive boilers required by the Government during the 12 years commencing with 1923. Millions of pounds have been spent annually in the United Kingdom on the purchase of locomotives, wagons and other railway materials, in spite of the demand made in this country that India should be made self-contained in the matter of supply of railway materials. The manufacture of locomotives in India will give a great impetus to the construction of power generating plants and to the diffusion of mechanical knowledge without which it is idle to expect any large industrial development. at last a right policy is going to be adopted, and the Government communique is a very important indication that India is to be really governed in the interests of its people and not in those of British manufacturers.

The Moplah Riots.

The "Tribune."—That a full and independent enquiry must be made into the Mopla outbreak and the steps that have been taken to suppress it goes without saying. But the point on which for the moment we desire to lay even greater emphasis is that it is perfectly clear that the same spirit of mischief that was so largely responsible for the Punjab muddle has evidently been at work somewhere in the present case also. Not only the Viceroy but also the Home Member said in the clearest terms that the outbreak must not be regarded as symptomatic of the condition of India as a whole and the latter made it as clear as language could make it that the movement of non-violent non-co-operation had nothing to do with it. Yet the cables to England speak of "a wide-spread belief that it was a premature episode in what was designed as a general rising." Wide-spread belief among whom? No doubt among the old women of both sexes whose frequent hysteric fits have become a positive danger to the Commonwealth!

Free Life Readings

To All Who Write at Once

The well-known European Astrologer, Professor Roxroy, has once more decided to favour the people of this country with Free Test Readings of their lives from his office in Holland.

Prof. Roxroy's fame is so well known in this country that he hardly needs an introduction from us. His power to read the lives of people, no matter at what distance they may be is described as simply marvellous.

In August 1913 he clearly predicted the Great War, and informed all his clients that "a bereavement in Royal circles will affect most of the crowned heads in Europe." Even Astrologers of various nationalities and reputation all over the world acknowledge him to be their master, and follow in his footsteps. He tells you what you are capable of, and how you can be successful. He mentions your friends and enemies, and describes the good and bad periods in your life. His description as to past, present and future events will astonish and help you.

Baroness Blanquet, one of the most talented ladies of Paris, says:

"I thank you for my Complete Life Reading, which is really of extraordinary accuracy. I had already consulted several Astrologers, but never before have I been answered with so much truth, or received such complete satisfaction. With sincere pleasure I will recommend you and make your marvellous science known to my friends and acquaintances."

If you want to take advantage of this special offer and obtain a review of your life, mention the name of this paper and get a Trial Reading free. Money not necessary. Simply send your full name and address (written by yourself) the date, month, year and place of your birth, and state whether Mr. Mrs. or Miss.

If you wish you may enclose 6 annas (in stamps of your own country) to pay postage and clerical work. Do not enclose coins in your letter. Send your letter to ROXROY, Dept. 1001 B. No. 42, Emmastraar, The Hague, Holland. Postage to Holland 2½ annas.

BID ALL YOUR FOOT TROUBLES A LAST GOOD-BYE.

Sore, tender, tired, aching, burning, smarting and swollen feet, weaP arches, corns, callouses, blisters, or any other bad foot troubles.

For immediate relief and a really lasting cure, one refreshing, healing and antiseptic foot bath in oxygenated water is all you you need. This solves for anyone the problem of how to get rid of the intense torture produced by any of the above foot troubles.

Correspondence Summarised.

CUSTOMS PREVENTIVE DEPARTMENT—"Malaria", alluding to editorial notes on Indians in the Preventive Service, says that the article threw but a side-light into the matter, without taking into consideration the favouritism that is generally prevailing in the above Department. He says that really deserving men—men who have grown grey in service—are kept back in order to make room for the favourites of the heads and invites the attention of the present Collector of Customs, who is anxious to do justice, to the matter.

SIR SANKARAN NAIR AND INDORE.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

An Indian Correspondent writes:—

Sir,—During the rule of the present Maharaja Savai Tukoji Rao Holkar, who was installed on the gadi in the year 1912, we had a succession of seven Divans including Sir Narayenrao Chandavarkar, and now the gladdening news comes that Sir C. Sankaram Nair is going to take charge of the post of Chief Minister of Holkar State. It is believed that the present Divan Mr. G. Mysore will become Deputy Divan and relieve Rao Bahaur D. V. Kirtane who becomes the Chief Justice of Indore High Court. On Sir Sankaran Nair taking charge of the Ministership, Sir Shivaswami Iyer will cease to be the Adviser of the Holkar administration on Rs. 5,000 per month.

MUNICIPAL VAGARIES

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—For some days past I have witnessed certain Municipal Inspectors and coolies carrying away things either lying on the footpaths or on the streets in a hand cart drawn by two coolies. On enquiries, I was told by one of the Inspectrs that the Bombay Municipality has laid down a rule to the effect that any sort of article lying in public streets so as to obstruct public traffic should be taken possessions of by the Municipalty and that the things so taken away should be returned to the owner on application and on payment of a fine. Whether this rule is in the interests of the public, I am not going to discuss here. I wish to describe the method, how these things, the property of the public, are carried away by the Municipal employees.

An Inspector or a Mukadm take a round every morning with a force of six or more coolies and removes every thing lying in the street or footpath viz. benches, chairs wooden boxes, etc., without the knowledge of the owner, whether the things might obstruct public traffic or not. The worthy officer, moreover, does not give any warning for the removal of the things neither does he give any knowledge of the place whereto the things are removed. From yesterday I notice these people even trying to take away forcibly baskets full of vegetables from the streets vendors near Null Bazar. These poor vegetable sellers sit in some corners of the street or footpath without obstructing the public traffic. Is it human to try to deprive these poor people of the means of their livelihood? Further, some shopkeepers near Null Bazar are allowed to keep things on footpaths near their shops. Near the Round Temple Tram Stand a wooden box was lying on the footpath this morning, which was removed in the usual course, but to my great surprise I saw the makadam keeping it back at the instincts of the Police Sepoy No. 2739 on, duty there. Why this partiality? Will the Municipal Corporation look into this scandal soon and remedy its evil?—Yours, etc.
